

BISHOP WINCHESTER INJURED BY AUTO

Word from the family of Bishop Winchester at Little Rock, Ark., received by his son, Lee Winchester, local attorney, stated that the bishop was suffering a high fever, following the accident Sunday evening in which he was struck down by an automobile, dislocating his shoulder and inflicting severe bruises. Mr. Winchester will go to Little Rock to be with his father. Bishop Winchester had just returned from Memphis where he preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Tennessee State Normal school last Sunday morning. Upon his arrival in Little Rock he had gone immediately to Christ Episcopal church, where he was to deliver the evening sermon. Upon getting out of his car at the church, he was hit by a passing car.

BILL PASSES; BARGE LINE TO BENEFIT

New developments in river transportation facilities and construction of terminals to the amount of $500,000, at Memphis, will begin at once following the passage through the senate and house of the sundry civil bill. The bill, which is the Mississippi Valley Waterways association as to whether the bill would meet with success led to a request to the Memphis Chamber of Commerce to urge Tennessee senators to give every support to the measure.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES DIRECTORS TO MEET

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Associated charities Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the office of the association at Central police headquarters, one of the important matters to be taken up will be the election of a successor to the late E. H. Morrow as president of the organization. It is believed that Milton S. Binswanger, who is vice-president, will be the probable choice to succeed Mr. Morrow.

BURY MRS. ROWE.

Funeral rites were said Friday for Mrs. Mary A. Rowe, wife of L. E. Rowe, at the residence, 2121 Carr avenue, and burial followed in Elmwood cemetery. Mrs. Rowe died Thursday afternoon. Her husband, mother, Mrs. Carrie Slaughter, two brothers and three sisters survive. Mrs. Rowe was 77 years of age.

WILL HOLD SERVICES FOR MEMPHIS SOLDIER

Rev. W. W. Adams, pastor of the Harris Memorial Methodist church, Sunday afternoon will hold funeral services for H. R. (Dick) Holland, soldier who died in England, at the Chelsea Avenue Methodist church. The body arrived in Memphis Friday from New York. It is the first body of a Memphis soldier who died overseas to be sent back.

TOMATO CROP MOVING.

CRYSTAL SPRINGS, Miss., June 4. (Sp.)—The tomato crop, which is regarded as the staple crop by truck growers, is moving off lively this week, with every indication pointing to a very profitable season for the growers. The first sales were made by Lee Harper, when he sold three crates for $9. Later Walter Bilelow, near Hopwood, sold three crates for $10. The output, which offer, it is reported, he declined.

CANDIDATES ANNOUNCE.

COVINGTON, Tenn., June 4. (Sp.)—Interest in the office of direct representative in Tipton county for the next general assembly is beginning to manifest itself for the reason that two candidates have already announced themselves for the position. J. H. Flippin, who until recently was president of the First State bank of Covington, and George R. Ellis, Jr., chairman of the Tipton county election commissioners of Tipton county, are candidates, and others are expected to announce in the near future.

LAMB SALE AT NEWBERN.

NEWBERN, Tenn., June 4. (Sp.)—The members of the Dyer County Sheep and Wool Growers' association of the Newbern territory have made arrangements for a co-operative lamb sale, to be held in Newbern Saturday, June 5. All sheep growers are urged to correspond with Albert C. Harris, a prominent farmer and sheep grower, of near town.

HE'S GRADUATED FROM THE KNICKER CLASS

HE'S a real man now, ready to take a man's place in the world. His athletic shoulders are ready for real responsibilities. Your boy will feel that way the minute he steps into one of our First Long Trousers Suits. They're built for growing chaps—molded to his figure with erect shoulders, chesty effect and trim waist lines. And they're styled like dad's clothes.

These are the suits so appealing to the young fellow just home from school.

For the big boy—there's a Palm Beach Suit

SOMERVILLE BANKER HERE; TALKS CROPS

Capt. E. A. Maddox, popular cashier of the Fayette county bank, Somerville, Tenn., was in Memphis Friday visiting among local bankers. He says crops are suffering from too much rain, but conditions in the county have shown improvement recently as the result of the big effort made to overcome late-ness. The rains of the past day or so, however, will set things back again, he says, as labor scarcity means that grass and weeds will be hard to cope with.

BALL SEASON OPENS.

COVINGTON, Tenn., June 4. (Sp.)—The baseball season will open in Covington Saturday, June 5, when the local team will meet the Standard Oil company team of Memphis. W. W. Gerald & Clark school at Tullahoma, Tenn., has been selected as manager of the Covington team and has arranged games for June and July with teams in this section. The local team has been working out daily for some time and is in fairly good shape for the opening date.
